

WINGS AND TIGHTS.

Emil F. Seidel Describes His Wife's Costume as Mercury.

HE DID NOT ACCOMPANY HER TO THE MASQUERADE BALL.

The Cabinet-Maker Takes the Stand to Rebut His Wife's Testimony in His Suit for Divorce—George Smith Takes the Stand in the Contested Smith Will Case—Court Notes.

Emil F. Seidel, the well-known cabinet maker, who is plaintiff in the divorce case which has been on trial before Judge Fisher for the past two days, was placed on the stand this morning in rebuttal of Mrs. Seidel's testimony. William F. Smith, his attorney, asked: "Did you go to the Liederkrantz masque ball with your wife dressed as Mercury?"

"No, sir."

"How was your wife dressed on that occasion?"

"I do not know the proper names for female costumes. You can see Mercury in any picture book."

"Well, did she wear a skirt?"

"She wore tights, with wings on her shoulders, and a sash about nine inches wide about the waist. If the other witnesses were asked about the costume, perhaps they would say Fisher was surprised at the witness." Seidel also denied that he went to the Liederkrantz masque ball when his wife was dressed as a Highlander. He maintained that he did not strike her, as she alleged, but that she struck herself by colliding with the mantel of the piano. Seidel also denied that he confronted her with a $10 dry goods bill. In cross-examination he said that she showed fear on that occasion for the first time. He ascribed her hair turned gray at the birth of their son, now 20 years old, to "gray before she was 20 years old," he said, "and people pointed at us on the street, and commented on the evident difference in our ages on account of her gray hair." On cross-examination Seidel admitted that he never went to the masque ball with his wife.

He acknowledged that he forbade her to use the family surrey a month before the suit was instituted, but he believed this to be reasonable and proper.

Evidence was also introduced this morning, showing the financial standing of Mr. Seidel, showing that he was reported to be worth from $10,000 to $20,000.

The deposition of Marcella Boland of 1716 North Twenty-third street, a former servant of Mr. Seidel, was read.

The deposition stated that Mrs. Seidel used to cry and fret a good deal, and tell deponent of things which Mr. Seidel had done to her.

Deponent would not allow her to state what the things were.

Deponent had heard loud noises in Mr. and Mrs. Seidel's room, and when Seidel would come crying and tell deponent what Mr. Seidel had done.

Mrs. Seidel never went out to entertaining or dancing school.

It was seventeen years since deponent lived with the Seidels.

Mr. Seidel used to complain about the house bills and the expenses availed.

He used to make Mrs. Seidel cry.

Seidel used to take spines, deponent stated, and for weeks would not stop to eat or sleep.

Deponent used to tell him of the deposition set forth that people on the outside used to tell her.

The other testimony this morning consisted of the evidence of neighbors of the Seidels, who all stated that Mrs. Seidel was one of the best women in the neighborhood.

The evidence closed with Seidel's testimony, and Judge Fisher took the case under advisement.

George Smith Testifies.

George Smith, the defendant in the Smith will contest suit on trial in Judge Vallant's Court, took the witness stand to day and testified in his own behalf. He stated that he was 50 years old last February. He was brought here from New York when he was 5 years old by a Mr. Robinson, who took him to Mr. James Smith, his step-father, and Smith took him home. This was the first time he saw Mrs. Persis Smith whose will is being contested. He did not know when his mother died. He came here in 1888. His position in the Smith household, he stated, that of son. Mr. and Mrs. Smith called him George. He then gave an account of his education and the schools he attended. He said he was born in Mrs. Smith's home, he stated, were taught him by Mrs. Smith. He finished his education at Harvard. The defense then read several letters written to him by Mrs. Smith while he was away.

Contested Divorce Suit.

The contested divorce case of Lillian Dryer against Henry Dryer was begun in Judge Dunn's court to day. The parties were married Dec. 10, 1885, and lived together until June 1, 1890. She charges drunkenness and failure to support. Since the divorce suit was filed Dryer, who is a butler, began a suit for separation from his wife, in which his name is Noelher on a charge of alienating his wife's affection, but the case was dismissed. Dryer's husband used to get drunk two or three times a week. Hugo Muench is Mrs. Dryer's attorney and P. W. Fauntleroy is defending the case.

New Suits Filed.

Jennie Sheppard, in her suit for divorce filed to day, states that when her husband, Barack Sheppard, would draw his pay as a carriage blacksmith he would get drunk and remain away from home for days. He failed to provide for her, she said. They were married Aug. 29, 1889, and lived together until Sept. 20, 1890.

Nicholas Hoffmeyer began a suit to day against Henry J. Leib, his employer, because of a broken leg and other injuries which he alleges were caused by a freezing machine at Leib's Western Brewery.

Court Notes.

Bernard Sommer by his will admitted to probate to day leaves his estate to his wife, Henrietta Sommer, excepting $1 each to his two sons, Frederick and William.

AMONG THE BROKERS.

A Dull Market—Stocks Sold and Prices Obtained To-Day.

There was not much trading on the Mining Exchange to day, and prices were low.

Central Silver continued to descend. At the opening the stock was offered at $3, but none could be sold above 14¢. At that quotation the friends of the stock made a rally, and 8,000 shares were purchased. More could have been sold but holders asked 2, and no further sales were made.

The market in Elizabeth was better, 100 shares being sold at 45¢, with 45¢ bid at the close.

The following quotations were made on call to day:

BID.	ASK.	BID.	ASK.
Adams... 95	96	M. Breen... 82	2
C. Silver... 11 ^b	12 ^b	P. Murphy... 82	1 2/4
Elizabeth... 12 ^b	13 ^b	S. Hopes... 1	1 2/4
Little Alb... 2	13 50	W. Taich... 4	7
Montrose... 14	22 ^b	Yums... 4	7

The market was inactive and few stocks were dealt in.

Frank Michael Finds Ball.

DETROIT, Mich., April 6.—James A. Kier and Jacob M. Smith appeared at the Police Court this morning and offered to go on the bonds of "Prince" Michael and Eliza Court, the Flying Hollies. They were accepted as bonds.

The market was inactive and few stocks were dealt in.

Emil F. Seidel Describes His Wife's Costume as Mercury.

HE DID NOT ACCOMPANY HER TO THE MASQUERADE BALL.

The Cabinet-Maker Takes the Stand to Rebut His Wife's Testimony in His Suit for Divorce—George Smith Takes the Stand in the Contested Smith Will Case—Court Notes.

Emil F. Seidel, the well-known cabinet maker, who is plaintiff in the divorce case which has been on trial before Judge Fisher for the past two days, was placed on the stand this morning in rebuttal of Mrs. Seidel's testimony. William F. Smith, his attorney, asked: "Did you go to the Liederkrantz masque ball with your wife dressed as Mercury?"

"No, sir."

"How was your wife dressed on that occasion?"

"I do not know the proper names for female costumes. You can see Mercury in any picture book."

"Well, did she wear a skirt?"

"She wore tights, with wings on her shoulders, and a sash about nine inches wide about the waist. If the other witnesses were asked about the costume, perhaps they would say Fisher was surprised at the witness." Seidel also denied that he went to the Liederkrantz masque ball when his wife was dressed as a Highlander. He maintained that he did not strike her, as she alleged, but that she struck herself by colliding with the mantel of the piano. Seidel also denied that he confronted her with a $10 dry goods bill. In cross-examination he said that she showed fear on that occasion for the first time. He ascribed her hair turned gray at the birth of their son, now 20 years old, to "gray before she was 20 years old," he said, "and people pointed at us on the street, and commented on the evident difference in our ages on account of her gray hair." On cross-examination Seidel admitted that he never went to the masque ball with his wife.

He acknowledged that he forbade her to use the family surrey a month before the suit was instituted, but he believed this to be reasonable and proper.

Evidence was also introduced this morning, showing the financial standing of Mr. Seidel, showing that he was reported to be worth from $10,000 to $20,000.

The deposition of Marcella Boland of 1716 North Twenty-third street, a former servant of Mr. Seidel, was read.

The deposition stated that Mrs. Seidel used to cry and fret a good deal, and tell deponent of things which Mr. Seidel had done to her.

Deponent would not allow her to state what the things were.

Deponent had heard loud noises in Mr. and Mrs. Seidel's room, and when Seidel would come crying and tell deponent what Mr. Seidel had done.

Mrs. Seidel never went out to entertaining or dancing school.

It was seventeen years since deponent lived with the Seidels.

Mr. Seidel used to complain about the house bills and the expenses availed.

He used to make Mrs. Seidel cry.

Seidel used to take spines, deponent stated, and for weeks would not stop to eat or sleep.

Deponent used to tell her.

The other testimony this morning consisted of the evidence of neighbors of the Seidels, who all stated that Mrs. Seidel was one of the best women in the neighborhood.

The evidence closed with Seidel's testimony, and Judge Fisher took the case under advisement.

George Smith Testifies.

George Smith, the defendant in the Smith will contest suit on trial in Judge Vallant's Court, took the witness stand to day and testified in his own behalf. He stated that he was 50 years old last February. He was brought here from New York when he was 5 years old by a Mr. Robinson, who took him to Mr. James Smith, his step-father, and Smith took him home. This was the first time he saw Mrs. Persis Smith whose will is being contested. He did not know when his mother died. He came here in 1888. His position in the Smith household, he stated, that of son. Mr. and Mrs. Smith called him George. He then gave an account of his education and the schools he attended. He said he was born in Mrs. Smith's home, he stated, were taught him by Mrs. Smith. He finished his education at Harvard. The defense then read several letters written to him by Mrs. Smith while he was away.

Contested Divorce Suit.

The contested divorce case of Lillian Dryer against Henry Dryer was begun in Judge Dunn's court to day. The parties were married Dec. 10, 1885, and lived together until June 1, 1890. She charges drunkenness and failure to support. Since the divorce suit was filed Dryer, who is a butler, began a suit for separation from his wife, in which his name is Noelher on a charge of alienating his wife's affection, but the case was dismissed. Dryer's husband used to get drunk two or three times a week. Hugo Muench is Mrs. Dryer's attorney and P. W. Fauntleroy is defending the case.

New Suits Filed.

Jennie Sheppard, in her suit for divorce filed to day, states that when her husband, Barack Sheppard, would draw his pay as a carriage blacksmith he would get drunk and remain away from home for days. He failed to provide for her, she said. They were married Aug. 29, 1889, and lived together until Sept. 20, 1890.

Nicholas Hoffmeyer began a suit to day against Henry J. Leib, his employer, because of a broken leg and other injuries which he alleges were caused by a freezing machine at Leib's Western Brewery.

Court Notes.

Bernard Sommer by his will admitted to probate to day leaves his estate to his wife, Henrietta Sommer, excepting $1 each to his two sons, Frederick and William.

AMONG THE BROKERS.

A Dull Market—Stocks Sold and Prices Obtained To-Day.

There was not much trading on the Mining Exchange to day, and prices were low.

Central Silver continued to descend. At the opening the stock was offered at $3, but none could be sold above 14¢. At that quotation the friends of the stock made a rally, and 8,000 shares were purchased. More could have been sold but holders asked 2, and no further sales were made.

The market in Elizabeth was better, 100 shares being sold at 45¢, with 45¢ bid at the close.

The following quotations were made on call to day:

BID.	ASK.	BID.	ASK.
Adams... 95	96	M. Breen... 82	2
C. Silver... 11 ^b	12 ^b	P. Murphy... 82	1 2/4
Elizabeth... 12 ^b	13 ^b	S. Hopes... 1	1 2/4
Little Alb... 2	13 50	W. Taich... 4	7
Montrose... 14	22 ^b	Yums... 4	7

The market was inactive and few stocks were dealt in.

Emil F. Seidel Describes His Wife's Costume as Mercury.

HE DID NOT ACCOMPANY HER TO THE MASQUERADE BALL.

The Cabinet-Maker Takes the Stand to Rebut His Wife's Testimony in His Suit for Divorce—George Smith Takes the Stand in the Contested Smith Will Case—Court Notes.

Emil F. Seidel, the well-known cabinet maker, who is plaintiff in the divorce case which has been on trial before Judge Fisher for the past two days, was placed on the stand this morning in rebuttal of Mrs. Seidel's testimony. William F. Smith, his attorney, asked: "Did you go to the Liederkrantz masque ball with your wife dressed as Mercury?"

"No, sir."

"How was your wife dressed on that occasion?"

"I do not know the proper names for female costumes. You can see Mercury in any picture book."

"Well, did she wear a skirt?"

"She wore tights, with wings on her shoulders, and a sash about nine inches wide about the waist. If the other witnesses were asked about the costume, perhaps they would say Fisher was surprised at the witness." Seidel also denied that he went to the Liederkrantz masque ball when his wife was dressed as a Highlander. He maintained that he did not strike her, as she alleged, but that she struck herself by colliding with the mantel of the piano. Seidel also denied that he confronted her with a $10 dry goods bill. In cross-examination he said that she showed fear on that occasion for the first time. He ascribed her hair turned gray at the birth of their son, now 20 years old, to "gray before she was 20 years old," he said, "and people pointed at us on the street, and commented on the evident difference in our ages on account of her gray hair." On cross-examination Seidel admitted that he never went to the masque ball with his wife.

He acknowledged that he forbade her to use the family surrey a month before the suit was instituted, but he believed this to be reasonable and proper.

Evidence was also introduced this morning, showing the financial standing of Mr. Seidel, showing that he was reported to be worth from $10,000 to $20,000.

The deposition of Marcella Boland of 1716 North Twenty-third street, a former servant of Mr. Seidel, was read.

The deposition stated that Mrs. Seidel used to cry and fret a good deal, and tell deponent of things which Mr. Seidel had done to her.

Deponent would not allow her to state what the things were.

Deponent had heard loud noises in Mr. and Mrs. Seidel's room, and when Seidel would come crying and tell deponent what Mr. Seidel had done.

Mrs. Seidel never went out to entertaining or dancing school.

It was seventeen years since deponent lived with the Seidels.

Mr. Seidel used to complain about the house bills and the expenses availed.

He used to make Mrs. Seidel cry.

Seidel used to take spines, deponent stated, and for weeks would not

WELL-DRESSED MEN

LONDON STILL LEADS IN SETTING THE STYLES—WHAT IS NOW WORN.

London, March 23.—The well-dressed man of London continues to set the fashion for the male sex the world over.

Until last fall there had not been for many years any decided change in the styles of gentlemen's garments. Then the sudden elongation of skirts created havoc with the wardrobes of correct dressers and made business brisk for the merchant tailors. For the coming season fashion has changed the styles that prevailed last season but slightly, except in the matter of coat skirts. The straightening of the collar crease of the vest has been completed and shows no sign of its former curves. Trousers are about as they were. A summary of the special features as adopted by the leading tailors is as follows: Shoulders are moderately wide and have the seams cut low. Edges are generally stitched, though cord has still quite popular for day or evening dress. Binding is seldom used and is always put on narrow. Double-breasted frock coats are from one to four inches longer than at the commencement of last season. The tendency is still to shorten them in favor of frock and sack coats, and are a trifle longer than heretofore. Overcoats are generally shaped except the coats, which are cut half-way. They roll lower and are from one to four inches longer than they were last spring. Except for evening dress the curved creases for vests is no longer correct. Trouser legs are "pegged" style, and are still cut loose at the knee and are rather small at the bottom.

All odds the most fashionable garment for men's wear that will be seen this season is the long double-breasted frock, familiarly known as the "long tailcoat," on account of its extreme length. Only the dandies will wear it, however, as it looks rather cut-and-dried when worn away from fashionable surroundings. Its extreme length is 44 inches, but a length of from 39 to 42 inches is preferable. It may be worn without an overcoat, and for afternoon public entertainments is the correct thing.

The extreme increase sanctioned by fashion in the length of double-breasted frocks is by no means imperative, but no coat of this description that is as short as those of the corresponding season last year will be considered as correct. Except for evening dress and great affairs, the majority of worsteds, cheviots and undressed worsteds the extreme length will be but little worn, but no matter what may be the color or kind of material used, all double-breasted frocks will be an inch or more longer than they were last season, and the same of last season. The lapels are always well peaked and are from 24 to 28 inches wide at the top. The fronts are intended to close with three buttons only, except for the shorter styles when they are sometimes made to close with four. In any case the rows when the coat is unbent should be free and extend evenly to the bottom. If desired for day dress the vest is usually made of a more fancy vesting, though not necessarily so, and the trousers are of the same material as the coat. The trousers are of a moderately light shade of a not pronounced stripe of plaided material. When the coat is any material of a fancy weave or brown, gray or mixed in color, the trousers are always and the vest generally of the same color. The waist is cut in a single-breasted, though if made of a fancy vesting it is quite correct to have it double-breasted. If it is 26 inches long, it is 24 inches wide at the top. The lapels are either a plain v-shaped rolling collar or one with a peaked lapel effect. The trousers are rather small, though the legs are very slightly sprung, and are well hollowed over the instep and usually have the side seams finished with a narrow welt.

Outwardly the coat is very popular for half-dress and genteel business wear. The three-button cutaway, or the four-button for men who are unusually tall, may be cut with a moderate amount of bustle. The lapels are double stitched, the sleeves are finished with a wide cuff, and the waist is made of fancy worsteds or cheviots and of tweed or cassimere suitings.

For half-dress and business purposes the one-button cutaway will also be considerably worn. It should be 32½ in. in length for half-dress, but not more than 32 in. for business purposes. It is cut so as to be level, when the front is unbuttoned in either case, but the side flaps are only correct when worn for business purposes. For day wear or for dinner the waist is cut in a double-breasted, as those worn with the double-breasted frock, but the trousers are longer for business purposes, and the proportions being from 20 to 24½ inches at the knee, and from 1½ to 2 inches at the bottom.

SACK COATS.

Many people are partial to the sack coat, and the style this season is simple and desirable. All sacks are longer than last season and are cut straight, and have the side seams moderately curved. The double-breasted coats made of plaided, striped and mixed cloths are very popular, and when well made will be much worn during the spring months. For a man of average height the length will be 31 inches. The lapels are moderately curved, and double stitched when the pockets are patched on, but when they are not will usually be double stitched on the right side of the front. The roll extending to the third. All the pockets have flaps to go either in or out. The edges are double stitched, and the sleeves are finished with a single button.

The straight front single-breasted sack, either with all the pockets patched on or with patches for the breast pocket and a breast pocket, will be much worn. It will be made with all sorts of suitings in plaids, checks, stripes and mixtures and will average 30 inches in length. The lapels are moderately curved, and the double stitched when the pockets are patched on, but when they are not will usually be single stitched on the right side of the front. The roll extending to the third. All the pockets have flaps to go either in or out. The edges are double stitched, and the sleeves are finished with a single button.

The straight front single-breasted sack, either with all the pockets patched on or with patches for the breast pocket and a breast pocket, will be much worn. It will be made with all sorts of suitings in plaids, checks, stripes and mixtures and will average 30 inches in length. The lapels are moderately curved, and the double stitched when the pockets are patched on, but when they are not will usually be single stitched on the right side of the front. The roll extending to the third. All the pockets have flaps to go either in or out. The edges are double stitched, and the sleeves are finished with a single button.

Accidental Drowning.

CLEVELAND, O., April 6.—The body of 6-year-old Edna Calahan, who has been missing since last Thursday, was found on the beach this morning. Her disappearance was a mystery. It was believed that she had been kidnapped, but the police said that she had been drowned in the water. The body was found in a casket, and one bullet, stout and corpulent, and some others will wear the one-button cutaway sack. About 30 inches is the correct length, and the waist is cut in a six inches and is cut away to show three inches of the vest. The breast pocket is just closed with a vent, but the lower pockets have flaps to go either in or out.

Republicans Object.

The Eighth Congressional District Republican Committee have prepared a memorial to President Harrison protesting against the removal of Collier Wrenner and declaring that he is guilty of no offense. The committee claims any statement to the contrary before it endorsed Mr. Wrenner several years ago when he was appointed.

Miss Libby Belt Seriously Injured.

Miss Libby Belt of 2724 Dickenson was driving on Lindell avenue to-day when her buggy was run into by a horse wagon and she was thrown out. Her left arm was broken and she was otherwise badly injured.

An Emery Wheel Exploded.

An emery wheel in the American Car Works on Laclede and Manchester road broke this morning, and a piece struck Henry Eckert, a workman in the face. The wheel was broken and a large patch of flesh was torn from his face.

Another Mistrail.

The jury in the D. R. Boogher forgery case gave a verdict as to the guilt of the犯人. The jury was from 20 to 24 inches in width at the bottom. The Coves or Tuxedo sack coat will be worn at "stag" dinner and theater parties, and will be made of a mixture of fine worsteds. Cheviots will also be used in making the regulation evening dress suit, the coat of which will have a velvet collar.

In overcoats the Chesterfield, or fly-front

A MIGHTY COLLECTION OF BARGAINS THIS WEEK

AT PRICES THAT TELL—THAT WIN THE TRADE.

PARISIAN CLOAK CO.,

N. E. Corner Broadway and Washington Avenue.

WHY?
THAT'S
WHY.

Prices Like These Make Us Do the Business

	Beat		Beat		Beat		Beat		Beat		Beat
ONLY	It if You Can.	$1.75. YOU SAVE $1.00.	ONLY	It if You Can.	$2.50. YOU SAVE $1.50.	ONLY	It if You Can.	$3.25. YOU SAVE $1.75.	ONLY	It if You Can.	$3.75. YOU SAVE $2.25.
ONLY	It if You Can.	$4.50. YOU SAVE $3.00.	ONLY	It if You Can.	$5.75. YOU SAVE $3.25.

The Cotton Compress Basement May Be Inundated—Fears of a Flood.

The officials of the St. Louis Cotton Compress, at the foot of Butler street, became uneasy to-day at the unusual rise in the river. The gauge registered 25.1 feet this morning. The Compress cannot stand over 21 feet. Therefore the basement being inundated, and in that event, a small amount of cotton would be soaked. At a late hour this afternoon the manager of the Cotton Compress telegraphed to the police not as yet taken steps to remove the cotton.

The river has not so high in years, and the rise shows no abatement. News from the Missouri River, above the dam, is 16.2 feet above low water mark. Sixteen feet is the dammed line beyond which the Missouri bottoms are in a flood, and an inundation at that point is feared.

THE M. K. & T. INLET.

Men and Teams on Their Way to Work on the Road's Extension

A.C. Ferguson, railroad contractor of Memphis, Tenn., came up yesterday with 100 teams of mules, 200 scythes and 10 hands. They came up and fed at the Belz Memphis and worked in the Union yards and worked until camped out in tents. They left early this morning over the Wabash for Jefferson City, Mo., or at a point close by, where they will at once begin to make the dirt on the new inlet of the river. The M. K. & T. is to turn the new road into St. Louis for the road has already been graded. Its instructions push the work ahead to meet the new road. The men who come in from the outskirts of the city will doubtless over the tracks of the C. B. & Q., although it is not as yet admitted.

THE M. K. & T. INLET.

Men and Teams on Their Way to Work on the Road's Extension

A.C. Ferguson, railroad contractor of Memphis, Tenn., came up yesterday with 100 teams of mules, 200 scythes and 10 hands. They came up and fed at the Belz Memphis and worked in the Union yards and worked until camped out in tents. They left early this morning over the Wabash for Jefferson City, Mo., or at a point close by, where they will at once begin to make the dirt on the new inlet of the river. The M. K. & T. is to turn the new road into St. Louis for the road has already been graded. Its instructions push the work ahead to meet the new road. The men who come in from the outskirts of the city will doubtless over the tracks of the C. B. & Q., although it is not as yet admitted.

Dieckman and the Sharpshooters.

Gustave Sharpe of Cincinnati, King of Sharpshooters, is still in the city, and clear himself of the charge that he has done much to disrupt Sharpshooters' Corps No. 2, organized in this city two weeks ago. In the Cincinnati "Volks Freude" of last Sunday he denied the charge, and said that he had organized the corps here, and to have made arrangements without authority for a national competition, also states that he is not a member of the corps.

Corps No. 2 of Cincinnati is now admitted.

Dieckman and the Sharpshooters.

Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Estep issued a warrant this morning against Hubert Homelson of 1740 Second Carondelet avenue, charging him with wife abandonment. The warrant was issued on the solicitation of Mrs. Anna Homelson, who called on Estep to-day to say that her husband was not given a dollar toward her support for two months. She also said that he was earning $50 a month and a half.

Mrs. Anna Homelson, Franklin avenue, swore out a warrant against Harry Cole, charging him with grand larceny.

She said that she went into his residence some time ago and stole from her a watch and a diamond pin worth $100. He was arrested last night by Detective Larkins.

A warrant charging Charlotte Buckley of No. 7801 Waters street with malicious slander was sworn out to-day by Annie Schrempp of 720 South Broadway.

Geo. Ives swore out a warrant to-day charging Miller Gable, 30 Franklin avenue, with grand larceny. Gable, with assistance of his wife, Edw. Wilmart, of 8422 South Pennsylvania avenue, swore out a warrant to-day charging him with assault with intent to do bodily harm.

Warrants were sworn out this morning against James O'Brien and William O'Brien, charges of theft with petit larceny.

Mrs. Dulcie Kurton swore out a warrant this morning against Wm. West, charging him with larceny.

Herbert Bonner, a negro employed at Hotel Beers, called on Mr. Estep this morning and swore out a warrant against Charles Gardner, charging him with robbery in the first degree.

The charge was that he had beaten Gardner and the two men had a fight.

Prosecuted by His Grandfather.

D. N. Burgoyne of 51 South Euclid avenue had his grandson, Walter Burgoyne, sent to the Work-house to-day on a charge of disturbing the peace. The young man is 17 years old and has given his grandparents a great deal of trouble. The young man was brought to the Work-house yesterday and even threatened to kill her. The young man said that he had any conduct justified by an assault which both of the old folks made on him. Judge Morris fined him $50 and sent him to the Work-house for six months.

The prisoner is a bright-looking, well-dressed young man and in the city directory his occupation is given as that of a lithographer.

Miss Libby Belt Seriously Injured.

Miss Libby Belt of 2724 Dickenson was driving on Lindell avenue to-day when her buggy was run into by a horse wagon and she was thrown out. Her left arm was broken and she was otherwise badly injured.

An Emery Wheel Exploded.

An emery wheel in the American Car Works on Laclede and Manchester road broke this morning, and a piece struck Henry Eckert, a workman in the face. The wheel was broken and a large patch of flesh was torn from his face.

Another Mistrail.

The jury in the D. R. Boogher forgery case gave a verdict as to the guilt of the犯人. The jury was from 20 to 24 inches in width at the bottom. The Coves or Tuxedo sack coat will be worn at "stag" dinner and theater parties, and will be made of a mixture of fine worsteds. Cheviots will also be used in making the regulation evening dress suit, the coat of which will have a velvet collar.

In overcoats the Chesterfield, or fly-front

Specials--1000 Morning Wrappers, various materials, at $1.25 . . . You save $1.00
Specials--560 House Robes, challies with surah fronts, at $2.75 . . . You save $1.50
Specials--800 Tea Gowns, all wool, stylish materials, at $3.25 . . . You save $2.75
Specials--2,076 Elegant Merrimac Tea Gowns, nobby styles, at 95c . . . You save 80c
Specials--100 dozen of very fine long-waisted Corsets at 39c . . . You save 36c

Notice--With Every Corset Purchased You Have a Chance to Win a $500.00 Piano.

PARISIAN CLOAK COMP'Y

Good for what we say in the NEWSPAPERS as well as at our STORE.

N. E. CORNER BROADWAY AND WASHINGTON AVENUE.

the second mistrial a jury having failed to agree at a former trial last fall.

Newspapers.

Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Estep issued a warrant this morning against Hubert Homelson of 1740 Second Carondelet avenue, charging him with wife abandonment. The warrant was issued on the solicitation of Mrs. Anna Homelson, who called on Estep to-day to say that her husband was not given a dollar toward her support for two months. She also said that he was earning $50 a month and a half.

When this same judge was a hard-working attorney he was engaged as counsel for a fellow whose name was unknown. The youngsters are accused of picking the grain cars in the Iron Mountain freight yards.

Held for the Grand-Jury.

Cormack Larkin and John Scheenrey, two boys 13 years old, charged with burglary in the second degree and larceny, had a hearing this morning in the Court of Criminal Correction and were bound over for the Grand-Jury in the sum of $100 each.

Also, Mrs. Dillon, 30 Franklin avenue, swore out a warrant against Harry Cole, charging him with grand larceny.

She said that he had broken into her residence some time ago and stole from her a watch and a diamond pin worth $100. He was arrested last night by Detective Larkins.

A warrant charging Charlotte Buckley of No. 7801 Waters street with malicious slander was sworn out by Annie Schrempp, sent to the Work-house to-day.

George Ives swore out a warrant to-day charging against Wm. West, charging him with larceny.

Herbert Bonner, a negro employed at Hotel Beers, called on Mr. Estep this morning and swore out a warrant against Charles Gardner, charging him with robbery in the first degree.

The charge was that he had beaten Gardner and the two men had a fight.

Prosecuted by His Grandfather.

D. N. Burgoyne of 51 South Euclid avenue had his grandson, Walter Burgoyne, sent to the Work-house to-day on a charge of disturbing the peace. The young man is 17 years old and has given his grandparents a great deal of trouble. The young man was brought to the Work-house yesterday and even threatened to kill her. The young man said that he had any conduct justified by an assault which both of the old folks made on him. Judge Morris fined him $50 and sent him to the Work-house for six months.

The prisoner is a bright-looking, well-dressed

St. Louis Post-Dispatch,

PUBLISHED BY

THE PULITZER PUBLISHING CO.

JOSEPH PULITZER, President.

TERMS OF THE DAILY.

One year, postage paid, every Saturday and Sunday morning..... $10.00

Three months..... 5.00

By the week (delivered by carrier)..... 2.50

By the month (delivered by carrier)..... 6.00

Sunday edition, by mail, per year..... 2.00

Subscriptions will receive their paper regularly and will confer a discount of 10% on reporting the same to this office by postal card.

All business or news letters or telegrams should be addressed

POST-DISPATCH,

515 Oliver St.

POSTAGE.

Entered at the Post-office, St. Louis, Mo., as Second-class matter.

DOMESTIC. Per Copy

Eight to sixteen pages..... 1 cent

Eight to twelve pages..... 2 cents

Twelve to thirty-two pages..... 4 cents

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.

Editorial Rooms..... 285

Business Office..... 284

London Office, 32 Cockspur Street, Charing Cross, New York Bureau, Room 86, Pulitzer Building, Max H. Fischer, Manager.

THE POST-DISPATCH

Guarantees to Advertisers a Larger Local Circulation than that of Any Other TWO St. Louis Newspapers Combined.

TWELVE PAGES.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6, 1892.

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

THE HAGAN—Rheo.
GRAND OPERA-HOUSE—Roland Field.
OLYMPIC—"The Power of the Press."
STANDARD—"His Nibs, the Baron."
HAVLIN'S—"The Pay Train."
POPE'S—"The Mystery Affair."
MATINEES TO-MORROW.
HAVLIN'S—"The Pay Train."

Weather forecast for thirty-six hours, beginning at 12 m. to-day for Missouri: "Fine weather with a high wind." The storm central yesterday in Michigan has moved eastward off the Atlantic Coast, while another area of low pressure is moving eastward across Manitoba, and a less marked depression is central in the Gulf of South of Louisiana. This latter is causing rains in portions of Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee, the heaviest being at Chattanooga, where a number of houses have been washed away. Hermann has reached a stage of 15 feet, which is very near its crest. At Hermann it has reached the top of its banks and is about to overflow the flats at 16.2 and still rising. The Mississippi and its tributaries above the mouth of the Missouri are still rising. The stage of water at St. Louis is 25.1 feet.

Weather forecast for thirty-six hours, beginning at 12 m. to-day, for St. Louis: "Fair; warmer than last night."

The site of the new hotel having been selected, let us have a sight of the building as soon as possible.

Is this Noonan ship sinking? The well known indications of this distressful condition are noticeable about the battered craft.

JUDGE WOODS cannot feel flattered at his reception by the Chicago bar. He is not confirmed in the confidence of his fellow lawyers.

The smallest State in the Union is to make the biggest piece of news to-day. The people are listening for the thud in Rhode Island.

The only objection to St. Louis as a place of residence is the smoke. When that is abolished the last obstruction to rapid growth will be gone.

If there is any offense to Chili in our representative leaving her will undoubtedly condone it in view of the fact that EGAN is the departing representative.

The discovery that the Mayor's stamp doesn't "go" in the Democratic City Central Committee is doubtless a painful surprise to Private Secretary "JIM," but it is pleasing news to good Democrats.

The zeal of President HARRISON for civil service reform is one of the comicalities of the campaign. It would look better for him, however, if it had not developed just after the discovery that some of his own officeholders were working against him.

The SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH accepts advertising on a distinct and unequivocal guarantee that its circulation in the City of St. Louis and suburbs is more than double that of the "Republican" and larger than any other Sunday newspaper.

There was a small Democratic cyclone in town last night, but the damage was confined to the disabling of a fine political machine in the Mayor's office and the tangling of a beautiful pair of whiskers at Third and Chestnut streets.

The work of "doing" Gen. ALGER has been thoroughly accomplished. Following the exposure of his war record came the revelations of his boodle record in the last Republican National Convention. The testimony is Republican and cannot, therefore, be laid to party prejudice. ALGER is politically a dead man.

The bill which has just passed the House excluding the Chinese from this country is an act of bad faith. It ignores the treaty now existing with the Son of Heaven which ought to be observed until formally abrogated after due notice is given. Why is it that civilized man divests himself of the finer moralities when dealing with a heathen?

Many prominent Democrats were asked to go to Rhode Island and help out their struggling brethren, but it is significant that HILL was not in the list. The Rhode Island Democrats could not ask the representative of tyrannous bosses gone to seed in the Democratic party to help fight the Republican bosses which has controlled their State.

FIVE newspapers in the United States published forty-page editions on last Sunday and the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH was one of them. Neither the Globe-Democrat nor the Republic was in the list. The SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH printed a larger paper, more reading matter, more illustrations, more exclusive news than its competitors. The Republic has really dropped out of the competition, falling behind the SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH, as it did last Sunday, 8 pages in size, 30 columns in reading matter, 1,061 advertisements in the want columns and 672 square inches in the amount of illustrated matter.

AWAY WITH THE SMOKE.

The revival of the question of abating the smoke nuisance and the evidence that leading citizens are giving the matter earnest attention is especially gratifying to the POST-DISPATCH, as it has vigorously supported every movement which promised to give the city relief from the pall of smoke and soot.

The importance of the subject with reference to the interests of St. Louis can scarcely be overestimated. It is a potent detrimental factor, how potent, perhaps, few St. Louisans recognize. The smoke and soot we endure blackens not only the city but its reputation abroad. Visitors receive an unpleasant impression of the city because of them, and spread their opinions in vigorous language wherever they go. They necessarily enter largely into the consideration of the advantages of St. Louis as a place of residence and thus operate as a check upon the growth of population and business. Every good word for the city must be modified by an exception with respect to the atmosphere.

In addition to these indirect effects, which are undoubtedly severe, there is enormous direct loss in the damage inflicted upon spoliable stocks in the stores, clothes and household goods. The smoke and soot represent unconsumed fuel which is blown out of the chimneys instead of being converted into useful heat.

It is unnecessary to speak of the discomfort of the smoke-grimed atmosphere that is unspeakable. It constitutes the single undesirable point in the environment of the city.

It is a matter of surprise that the people of St. Louis have consented to be burdened with such a nuisance for so long a time. It may be abated and no effort should be spared to abate it. Citizens and their municipal representatives should combine to secure a permanent settlement of the matter. Now is the time to do it.

WHOSE MACHINE?

On Tuesday morning the Republic announced that the meeting of the Democratic City Central Committee would be on the occasion of a great struggle between FRANCIS and NOONAN for the control of the committee; that if the Noonan faction succeeded primaries would be held under the State law for the State nominating conventions only, while delegates to the convention for appointing delegates to the National Convention would be chosen in the old-fashioned way, by committee manipulation, and would in all likelihood be Noonan men.On the other hand the Republic announced that it would "adopt FILLEY's plan" and hold "an omnibus primary with Recorder of Voters CARLISLE as deus ex machina." And, according to the Republic, "with the skilled hand of Recorder of Voters CARLISLE to work the machinery of the law, it is believed that Francis delegations to all three conventions will be simultaneously ground out of the hopper."On Wednesday morning the Republic announced that the committee, by a vote of 17 to 11, had done precisely what was expected to do if captured by the Francis faction, and had done it with "the utmost harmony and good feeling."Now, is the Republic's diagnosis correct? Is the Noonan faction obliterated, and with it Col. Jonah's hope of bossing the Missouri delegation to Chicago, and making the nominating speech for CLEVELAND?

Is the Democratic primary machinery under the new State law to be worked "by the skilled hand of Recorder of Voters CARLISLE" so as to "grind out Francis delegations simultaneously to all three State conventions?"

It is really the situation, Col. Jonah will have to be spry in throwing NOONAN over and making his peace with the Governor or he will find that the bosses of "depuish" have already secured the coveted delegateship for some more agile acrobat.

THE faction fight between Boss PALACIO and Boss CRESPO in Venezuela is vigorously conducted with dynamite and dirk. CRESPO seems to have the best of it so far, although PALACIO, who represents the regulars, holds the capital. As soon as CRESPO sees himself he will quit being a kicker and a mugwump and become a sort of "Old Regularity" himself. He will play his part until his time comes, as it is sure to come to all bosses. The experience of Venezuela is but a repetition of that suffered by every other South American country.

THE anti-Hill Democrats of Buffalo would have done wisely to have refrained from abusing Senator HILL in their resolutions endorsing the May convention. The friends of Mr. CLEVELAND can accomplish nothing by angering Senator HILL and his friends. Some hope of harmony is necessary to secure the naming of any New York man at Chicago. Personal abuse of HILL, who, whatever his errors, has contributed eminent services to the party of his State, would detract from the effect of the protest against the actual wrong of his "snap" convention and would invite a counter charge of malice from the friends of the Senator. The Democrats of New York were never so much in need of calmness and reasonableness in their counsels as now.

GOV. ABBETT of New Jersey has vetoed the bill legalizing the Reading combination and another victory for the rights and interests of the people must be credited in a large measure to the work of a great newspaper. When the Reading deal was made the WORLD vigorously advocated the cause of the people and denounced it as an attempt to create a huge and oppressive monopoly in the necessities of life. When the New Jersey Legislature was captured by the monopolists it called upon Gov. ABBETT to defeat the effort to legalize the combination by vetoing the bill. The Governor has responded nobly and has again proved himself a bulwark for the people of his State against the greedy aggression of the railroads.

CONSTANT READER.—The wives of two brothers are not sisters-in-law.

ATTENATIVE READER.—The cities of population is located in east and west, and the railroads connect them.

ATTENATIVE READER.—There is no national association of the character named.

H.—SALESBURG street runs northeast and southwest throughout its entire length, and two SUBSCRIBERS.—The expression "caro" means the same as "caro" in the column.

SUBSCRIBER.—The Board of Police Commissioners require policemen to pay their just dues.

MISS B.—What you should take to clear the house for singing depends on what renders it house.

READER.—Guiteau was not a Catholic. It was John Wilkes Booth who shot President Lincoln.

READER.—You must enter your claim to be a voter before the election.

OLD SUBSCRIBER.—The information you desire can be obtained in Johnson's Universal Encyclopedia.

G.—The cities of population is located in east and west, and the railroads connect them.

ATTENATIVE READER.—There is no national association of the character named.

H.—SALESBURG street runs northeast and southwest throughout its entire length, and two SUBSCRIBERS.—The expression "caro" means the same as "caro" in the column.

SUBSCRIBER.—The Board of Police Commissioners require policemen to pay their just dues.

MISS B.—What you should take to clear the house for singing depends on what renders it house.

READER.—Guiteau was not a Catholic. It was John Wilkes Booth who shot President Lincoln.

READER.—You must enter your claim to be a voter before the election.

OLD SUBSCRIBER.—The information you desire can be obtained in Johnson's Universal Encyclopedia.

G.—The cities of population is located in east and west, and the railroads connect them.

ATTENATIVE READER.—There is no national association of the character named.

H.—SALESBURG street runs northeast and southwest throughout its entire length, and two SUBSCRIBERS.—The expression "caro" means the same as "caro" in the column.

SUBSCRIBER.—The Board of Police Commissioners require policemen to pay their just dues.

MISS B.—What you should take to clear the house for singing depends on what renders it house.

READER.—Guiteau was not a Catholic. It was John Wilkes Booth who shot President Lincoln.

READER.—You must enter your claim to be a voter before the election.

OLD SUBSCRIBER.—The information you desire can be obtained in Johnson's Universal Encyclopedia.

G.—The cities of population is located in east and west, and the railroads connect them.

ATTENATIVE READER.—There is no national association of the character named.

H.—SALESBURG street runs northeast and southwest throughout its entire length, and two SUBSCRIBERS.—The expression "caro" means the same as "caro" in the column.

SUBSCRIBER.—The Board of Police Commissioners require policemen to pay their just dues.

MISS B.—What you should take to clear the house for singing depends on what renders it house.

READER.—Guiteau was not a Catholic. It was John Wilkes Booth who shot President Lincoln.

READER.—You must enter your claim to be a voter before the election.

OLD SUBSCRIBER.—The information you desire can be obtained in Johnson's Universal Encyclopedia.

G.—The cities of population is located in east and west, and the railroads connect them.

ATTENATIVE READER.—There is no national association of the character named.

H.—SALESBURG street runs northeast and southwest throughout its entire length, and two SUBSCRIBERS.—The expression "caro" means the same as "caro" in the column.

SUBSCRIBER.—The Board of Police Commissioners require policemen to pay their just dues.

MISS B.—What you should take to clear the house for singing depends on what renders it house.

READER.—Guiteau was not a Catholic. It was John Wilkes Booth who shot President Lincoln.

READER.—You must enter your claim to be a voter before the election.

OLD SUBSCRIBER.—The information you desire can be obtained in Johnson's Universal Encyclopedia.

G.—The cities of population is located in east and west, and the railroads connect them.

ATTENATIVE READER.—There is no national association of the character named.

H.—SALESBURG street runs northeast and southwest throughout its entire length, and two SUBSCRIBERS.—The expression "caro" means the same as "caro" in the column.

SUBSCRIBER.—The Board of Police Commissioners require policemen to pay their just dues.

MISS B.—What you should take to clear the house for singing depends on what renders it house.

READER.—Guiteau was not a Catholic. It was John Wilkes Booth who shot President Lincoln.

READER.—You must enter your claim to be a voter before the election.

OLD SUBSCRIBER.—The information you desire can be obtained in Johnson's Universal Encyclopedia.

G.—The cities of population is located in east and west, and the railroads connect them.

ATTENATIVE READER.—There is no national association of the character named.

H.—SALESBURG street runs northeast and southwest throughout its entire length, and two SUBSCRIBERS.—The expression "caro" means the same as "caro" in the column.

SUBSCRIBER.—The Board of Police Commissioners require policemen to pay their just dues.

MISS B.—What you should take to clear the house for singing depends on what renders it house.

READER.—Guiteau was not a Catholic. It was John Wilkes Booth who shot President Lincoln.

READER.—You must enter your claim to be a voter before the election.

OLD SUBSCRIBER.—The information you desire can be obtained in Johnson's Universal Encyclopedia.

G.—The cities of population is located in east and west, and the railroads connect them.

ATTENATIVE READER.—There is no national association of the character named.

H.—SALESBURG street runs northeast and southwest throughout its entire length, and two SUBSCRIBERS.—The expression "caro" means the same as "caro" in the column.

SUBSCRIBER.—The Board of Police Commissioners require policemen to pay their just dues.

MISS B.—What you should take to clear the house for singing depends on what renders it house.

READER.—Guiteau was not a Catholic. It was John Wilkes Booth who shot President Lincoln.

READER.—You must enter your claim to be a voter before the election.

OLD SUBSCRIBER.—The information you desire can be obtained in Johnson's Universal Encyclopedia.

G.—The cities of population is located in east and west, and the railroads connect them.

ATTENATIVE READER.—There is no national association of the character named.

H.—SALESBURG street runs northeast and southwest throughout its entire length, and two SUB

MONSTER DEEMING.

Evidence of Guilt Fastening on the Australian Murderer.

TESTIMONY GIVEN TO-DAY BEFORE THE CORONER'S JURY.

A Worthless Husband Carries Out His Threat to Kill His Wife—Argument Heard in the Wacasser Trial—A Girl Assisted on an English Passenger Train—Criminal News.

MELBOURNE, April 6.—The inquest into the death of Mrs. Deeming, who, it is charged, was killed by her husband and buried under a coating of lime beneath the floor of her house at Windsor, a suburb of Melbourne, was continued in the City Court to-day. An immense crowd was present and every word of the testimony was eagerly listened to by the throng. The bearing of Deeming was insolent throughout the proceedings, and he continually interposed replies while the witnesses were testifying. He claimed he had been perfectly satisfied with his wife and seemed in no way dismayed at the evidence that is piling up against him. No one here but believes he is the most diabolical wretch ever known. A large number of newspaper correspondents attended the inquest, and long reports of the proceedings were telegraphed and cabled in every direction.

The first witness called to-day was Mrs. Atkinson, who lives in the house next to that occupied by the Deemings at Windsor. She testified to hearing a man and woman quarreling in the house at about 10 o'clock last night, the husband is supposed to have been committed. Other evidence was given showing that Deeming has sold a quantity of effects known to have belonged to his wife. One witness, an ironmonger, said he had bought a gun and a spade from Deeming, on both of which articles a quantity of cement had dried.

Later details regarding Deeming's arrest are that when he was taken into custody at the Southern Cross Hotel where he was employed as an engineer at Fraser's Dock, he was carrying a bag making final arrangements for his marriage with Miss E. Goumbe, who was on her way from Bathurst, New South Wales, to join him. He had already secured a house, and his first act after taking possession was to purchase a harp on the floor of the main room cased.

The circumstances of his arrest were of a dramatic character. He was reading a newspaper containing a brief account of the discovery of Miss Mather's body at Windsor, when he heard the sound of a man's steps without the least warning arrested him on the charge of murder. For the moment Deeming was so stupefied that he quietly threw himself into his self-possession, and, according to the paragraph, asked the Constable if that was the crime of which he was accused, adding:

"I think I know the party who was murdered. She was a good little thing. I cannot believe that anyone would hurt her."

He was very ignorant of the details of the crime, having merely been instructed in a general way to arrest Deeming on the charge of murder. The party, however, in the course of conversation after the arrest acquainted him with many particulars of the crime, with which it was apparently well conversant.

Another discovery, which constitutes an important clew, has been made. It seems that Deeming during his voyage and in his port of call at Melbourne, Australia, in the center of which there was a dark stain like blood. The mottled stains was sold after his arrival. People are still trying to trace it but so far been unsuccessful.

Mr. Holt, a matrimonial agent, identified the prisoner as a man who had applied under the name of John Edward Russell. When he was about to leave Melbourne for a good appointment and he promised to call again, but he never returned.

ATROCIOUS ASSAULT.

PERILS OF TRAVEL IN AN ENGLISH PASSENGER COACH.

LONDON, April 6.—The assailing of women upon railway trains is becoming of such frequent occurrence that the opponents of the English compartment system are continually gaining adherents to their numbers. The latest case is reported this morning. Passengers in a compartment of a car attached to a train en route for Rubson, a town of Derbyshire, was startled by hearing piercing shrieks coming from the rear of the car. Upon going out they saw a girl about 18 years old standing upon the footboard, clutching the side of her skirt. The train was running at a good rate of speed and it appeared as though she would be thrown to the ground at any moment. She was at first unable to get a hold, so she made her way on the footboard to the next compartment, where she was taken in. Her clothing was torn and she was in a state of extreme excitement. She was quieted as far as possible, and then she explained that she and an unattached man were occupying the same compartment she had left. The man had engaged her in conversation, and finally made improper proposals to her. She repulsed his advances, but the man followed her and, despite her resistance and her cries for help, which were drowned by the rumbling of the train, had broken his grasp. When she attempted to free herself from his grasp she jumped out on the footboard and shrieked for help. The man became alarmed and leaped from the train, landing on the board and steady himself for a moment, jumped from the train. When the next station was reached the police were notified of the occurrence and a search was made for the girl's assailant. No trace of him was found.

THE WACASER TRIAL.

CAMPAIGN, Ill., April 6.—The argument in the famous Wacaser murder trial were completed yesterday, and soon after 1 o'clock Judge Bookwater gave his instructions to the jury. The instructions were quite lengthy and nothing was omitted which should have been put in. The jury remained in the jury-room only a few minutes, returning with a verdict not guilty. Frank Wacaser, the defendant, thus avoided justice and the law. The man for whom he stood, which the defendant was tried in Moultrie County about two years ago. The first trial ended in a hung jury. The second trial was sentenced to twenty-five years in the penitentiary. An appeal was taken and a change of venue obtained for this case, but when it was taken up again, another appeal for a new trial was granted, which to-day resulted in the verdict "not guilty." The trial cost Moultrie County over $100,000.

NO IDLE THREAT.

LAWRENCE, Mass., April 6.—A most brutal murder occurred last evening on Common street. Peter Enos, brakeman and a worthless husband, shot and instantly killed his wife Minnie. Peter Enos found his husband lying dead on the floor of their bedroom. Then she refused to have anything to do with him. He threatened to give her a present of a "white dress and a new box." Last night proved that his threats were not idle.

WOOLBERRY'S FACIAL SOAP
Frothy Suds. Skin soft & complexion. This needs no soap! Superb! Economical. Price 10c. per box. 10 boxes to the dozen. Manufactured by Woolberry, New York, N.Y. 100% Satisfaction Guaranteed, an efficient formula. This is WOOLBERRY, Standard Formula. The Woolberry Company, New York, N.Y.

SO COULD YOU IF YOU USED
CLAIROUETTE SOAP.
All St. Louis Grocers Keep It.

VANILLA.

The finest Vanilla comes from Mexico; the beans are from 7 to 9 inches long. The production is not large and they are consequently held at a very high price. This high price induces the makers of flavoring extracts to substitute the rank, bitter, poisonous tonka or snuff bean. The Price Flavoring Extract Company annually consume in the manufacture of Dr. Price's Extract of Vanilla, more of the finest quality of Mexican Vanilla Bean than any other maker of flavoring extract in the world, and it is by their use that Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extract of Vanilla secures its rare excellence.

SUICIDES.

Joseph Drymal Took Poison With His Last Drink.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 5.—Joseph Drymal, an employing tailor and a native of Germany, entered his workshop this afternoon and sent out for beer. From the large pitcher he poured a great draught for his men. When he came to his own glass he first put into it some poison and filled it to the brim with beer. "This is my last drink," he said, took off his glasses and replaced them on the bench. Drymal put his hand to his forehead, fell into a chair and in a short time was dead.

NO CAUSE ASSIGNED.

CINCINNATI, O., April 6.—A dispatch from Harrisburg, Ky., says: Mrs. Rose Hawkins, a widow about 55 years old and a highly respectable Christian lady, a life-long member of the M. E. Church, committed suicide yesterday morning near her late residence, in the city of Harrisburg, this place. She resided with her two sons. As the mother failed to appear at breakfast service was kept up until her mangled remains were found on a ledge of the steps on Dr. Miller, 20 feet high. No cause can be assigned for the act.

OBITUARY.

Death of Willard Saulsbury, Chancellor of Delaware.

WILMINGTON, Del., April 6.—William Saulsbury, aged 72 years, Chancellor of the State of Delaware, and ex-United States Senator, died yesterday at Dover, the noon hour, of heart failure. He was appointed Chancellor in 1873, and was the seventh that the State has had. He was in the Senate from 1855 to 1871 and also held the position of Attorney General for Delaware from 1855 to 1858. He was a member of the Democratic party and was a delegate to the national convention which nominated Buchanan for President. He leaves one son, a prominent lawyer of this city. His brother, Eli, ex-United States Senator, died last year.

CARROLLTON, Ill., March 6.—Mrs. Jennie E. Carlin, wife of Thomas J. Carlin, died last night at her home in this city.

Dr. Michael J. King, one of Dubuque's earliest settlers and a prominent contractor, is dead, aged 84.

DEATH ROLL.

LONDON, April 6.—The Rev. John Collingwood Bruce, L. L. D., F. S. A., died yesterday. He wrote "A Handbook of English History," which has gone through four editions.

THE M

EXCEPTIONAL SALE
OF
SPRING JACKETS

We Shall Place on Sale

To-Morrow Morning 350

Spring Jackets of exceptionally good value. Be on hand early. It will pay you to come. We offer

At $4.48

200 All-Wool Dark Tan Cloth 30-inch Long Jackets, welt seams, three top pockets, coat collar, positively worth $6.50.

At $5.50

150 Strictly All-Wool 30-inch Long Top Coats, top pockets and welt seams, come in two shades of gray, dark and light tan, positively worth $7.75.

We Do As We Advertise. Strictly One Price.

THE Model
CLOAK CO.,
S. W. Corner of Broadway and Washington Avenue.

has died. Both of his sisters are grown to womanhood and are married.

THE TROTTING HORSE.

First Annual Meeting of the American Trotting Register Association.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 6.—The corridors of the Auditorium Hotel were crowded to-day by men well-known in trotting-horse circles, and some of them known to every lover of the horse as the owners of the most speedy square-gaited equines in the world. The horsemen were called to attend the first annual meeting of the American Trotting Register Association convention, which convened at noon President Allen faced not only a majority of the Board of Directors, but also many representatives of horsemen when he rapped on the door of his office. Among those present were Vice-President F. S. Waters, Treasurer F. H. Stein, Lucas Bradach, Registrar, St. Louis, Mo.; C. C. Collier, St. Louis; C. F. Emery, Cleveland, O.; C. J. Hamlin, Buffalo, N.Y.; W. P. Hams, Terrell, Tex.; John D. David, Milwaukee, Wis.; N. E. John, Mitchell, Milwaukee, Wis., and many others.

The first business taken up was the election of the first year's officers. Before the session is finished new officers will be elected, and it is probable the rules will be amended.

The stand was opened and adopted by the association May 19, 1891, will be thoroughly discussed, with a view to further separating the trotters and pacers.

Sent to the House of Refuge.

Tom Wiley, a negro lad, who attempted to steal bananas from Tony Sison at Thirteenth and Franklin avenue yesterday and then pulled a knife when he was interrupted, was fined $500 in the Second District Court. Peter Nelson, a special officer for the real estate agents, made the arrest. He said that he was not a private watchman nor a member of the force, but a special officer.

Dr. J. Glancies will lecture on "Idiotry of Negroes," April 11.

About 6 o'clock last evening Police Officer Collins arrested a negro, Charles W. Jones, a drayman and gambler, and a constable. As the officer approached, Jones, who was armed with a wrist of attachment and seized the defendant's household goods until a settlement was made.

John Gamach, an employee of the woodenware factory, was shot and killed by his employer, Mr. W. B. Quigley, who is at present located at New Haven, Conn., in the interest of his health.

Dr. J. Glancies will lecture on "Idiotry of Negroes," April 11.

This morning Justice Meegan fined Charlotte and Gus Hodic $100 for being drunk and Gus Hodic for interfering.

Will Ferguson received an ugly and wounded nose, and was compelled to go to the hospital.

Donald Landor, a brakeman for the Elkhorn and Milwaukee Railroad, was severely injured.

During the melee Landor was struck on the head by a brick, and was unconscious for a few moments.

No arrests were made as Landor failed to prosecute.

John Moran, through his attorney, Will McNamee, brought suit against the Broadway Cable Railway Co., in Justice Meegan's Court, charging the company with $10,000 damages.

A circus cedar seat, which was in the possession of the company, was taken away.

Both men are colored and quarreled over drinks.

Donald Landor, a brakeman for the Elkhorn and Milwaukee Railroad, was severely injured.

During the melee Landor was struck on the head by a brick, and was unconscious for a few moments.

No arrests were made as Landor failed to prosecute.

John Moran, through his attorney, Will McNamee, brought suit against the Broadway Cable Railway Co., in Justice Meegan's Court, charging the company with $10,000 damages.

A circus cedar seat, which was in the possession of the company, was taken away.

Both men are colored and quarreled over drinks.

Donald Landor, a brakeman for the Elkhorn and Milwaukee Railroad, was severely injured.

During the melee Landor was struck on the head by a brick, and was unconscious for a few moments.

No arrests were made as Landor failed to prosecute.

John Moran, through his attorney, Will McNamee, brought suit against the Broadway Cable Railway Co., in Justice Meegan's Court,

charging the company with $10,000 damages.

A circus cedar seat, which was in the possession of the company, was taken away.

Both men are colored and quarreled over drinks.

Donald Landor, a brakeman for the Elkhorn and Milwaukee Railroad, was severely injured.

During the melee Landor was struck on the head by a brick, and was unconscious for a few moments.

No arrests were made as Landor failed to prosecute.

John Moran, through his attorney, Will McNamee, brought suit against the Broadway Cable Railway Co., in Justice Meegan's Court,

charging the company with $10,000 damages.

A circus cedar seat, which was in the possession of the company, was taken away.

Both men are colored and quarreled over drinks.

Donald Landor, a brakeman for the Elkhorn and Milwaukee Railroad, was severely injured.

During the melee Landor was struck on the head by a brick, and was unconscious for a few moments.

No arrests were made as Landor failed to prosecute.

John Moran, through his attorney, Will McNamee, brought suit against the Broadway Cable Railway Co., in Justice Meegan's Court,

charging the company with $10,000 damages.

A circus cedar seat, which was in the possession of the company, was taken away.

Both men are colored and quarreled over drinks.

Donald Landor, a brakeman for the Elkhorn and Milwaukee Railroad, was severely injured.

During the melee Landor was struck on the head by a brick, and was unconscious for a few moments.

No arrests were made as Landor failed to prosecute.

John Moran, through his attorney, Will McNamee, brought suit against the Broadway Cable Railway Co., in Justice Meegan's Court,

charging the company with $10,000 damages.

A circus cedar seat, which was in the possession of the company, was taken away.

Both men are colored and quarreled over drinks.

Donald Landor, a brakeman for the Elkhorn and Milwaukee Railroad, was severely injured.

During the melee Landor was struck on the head by a brick, and was unconscious for a few moments.

No arrests were made as Landor failed to prosecute.

John Moran, through his attorney, Will McNamee, brought suit against the Broadway Cable Railway Co., in Justice Meegan's Court,

charging the company with $10,000 damages.

A circus cedar seat, which was in the possession of the company, was taken away.

Both men are colored and quarreled over drinks.

Donald Landor, a brakeman for the Elkhorn and Milwaukee Railroad, was severely injured.

During the melee Landor was struck on the head by a brick, and was unconscious for a few moments.

READ!

READ!

READ!

BEAUTIFUL WASHINGTON AVENUE AND DELMAR AVENUE BOULEVARD IN

FOREST PARK PLACE

The Choicest Residence Property in the city. Adjoining WESTMORELAND PLACE AND PORTLAND PLACE, at $70 and $65 Per Front Foot. The Best Speculative and Best Residence Property in the city.

PRICES WILL BE ADVANCED APRIL 15th.

Over 5,000 feet of this Elegant Property has been sold, but some of the Finest Lots are Still Left.

RUTLEDGE & HORTON,
Telephone 3943. 1005 Chestnut Street.

NICHOLLS-RITTER

REALTY AND FINANCIAL CO.,
713 CHESTNUT STREET.

SHOT HIS WIFE.

Mrs. Wm. T. Griffin Wounded by a Jealous Husband.

HE FOLLOWS HER TO A HOUSE WHERE SHE HAD AN APPOINTMENT.

He Claims the Shooting Was Accidental and the Wife Corroborates His Story—Both Refuse to Reveal the Name of the Man With Whom She Had the Appointment.

About 11 o'clock last night Wm. T. Griffin, a travelling salesman for the Campbell Manufacturing Co., shot and killed his wife, Mrs. Katie Griffin, whom he had followed to the place of business at No. 2005 Chestnut street, where she had gone to meet another man. The shooting was accidental, Griffin claiming that he had gone to the house for the purpose of killing the man, whose name he refuses to give, but that he had no intention of hurting his wife. The couple have lived at St. Louis about six months at 223 Washington avenue, having come here from Buffalo, N. Y., and have been married five years. He was jealous of a man who, he claims, loves his wife before her marriage, and who recently followed her to this city. About 7 o'clock last night he followed her from a restaurant to his wife asking her to meet him at No. 2005 Chestnut street, and when, about 10 o'clock Mrs. Griffin slipped out of their Washington avenue home, Griffin followed her to Mrs. King's place. He found her in the kitchen there, and in a scuffle which followed a pistol which had drawn was discharged, the bullet entering Mrs. Griffin's neck at the base of the skull. Griffin immediately called a cab, took his wife home, and summoned Dr. N. W. Sharp of No. 2313 Washington avenue. Shortly after he was arrested by Detectives Dotzman and Fagan, and is now held at the Four Courts.

MRS. GRIFFIN'S STORY.

Mrs. Griffin was seen this morning by a Post-Dispatch reporter. She had passed a restless night, but was in good spirits, and claimed quite freely, save that like her husband, she kept the name of the man whose attentions had caused the shooting a profound secret.

"The whole trouble arises from the instant jealousy of my husband," said Mrs. Griffin. "The gentleman of whom he was jealous is the best friend I have ever had, but there has never been anything wrong between us. He asked me to let him go to St. Louis to return a revolver which he had left here, I refuse to give his name as I do not wish to bring him into this thing, and I have reason to believe that he can be of great service to me. He offered to get rid of him if he knew from her own statements, corroborated by the statements of others, that he was still to be seen in St. Louis, and when she was mentioned this morning Mr. Griffin burst into tears. 'If it were not for you, Sir,' he said, 'I would let my wife go with that man if she was bound to go away, but I did not want to give her up for the sake of the baby.' He said again that he had caused him all his trouble, but he could not understand why he went to St. Louis to take his revolver. It is for an immoral purpose. This man was an old lover of hers, who knew her former sweetheart, and he claims that she had every right to let him go." Griffin immediately called a cab, took his wife home, and summoned Dr. N. W. Sharp of No. 2313 Washington avenue. Shortly after he was arrested by Detectives Dotzman and Fagan, and is now held at the Four Courts.

"My husband has been married before me, and the woman still lives in Kansas City, and I have reason to believe he had never served a divorce from her. She has been living in St. Louis since married to me. My husband saw her in Kansas City about a week ago. He is also addicted to the use of morphine, and is a gambler. He has been trading for houses since he was 19 years old. He has a brother in New York City who boards at the Continental Hotel there, and he thinks of him often. He has come to St. Louis to help him out of his trouble.

Mr. Griffin manifested a good deal of uneasiness in regard to his wife's condition, and the prospect of her recovery, and expressed the hope that the wound would not prove fatal. During the conversation he was asked if he was still in the character of a scoundrel, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to.

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's story that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters' Hospital to see him. He has mistreated me at other times.

"My husband's statement that I told him the man he was jealous of was me, is not true. I never said such a thing, because the gentleman's attentions were those of a friend only, and I was not either the object or the subject of his infidelity, and he said that she had not, and that he had never given her cause to."

Frank, a well-dressed young man, who had been released from St. Louis Hospital last night, was present at the Four Courts and stated that Mrs. Griffin, who was shot by her husband last night, was his sister. He saw Mr. Griffin and his wife in the court room at 10 o'clock, and he had to go to the Sisters

SUNRISE And the New Day
Brings New Wants.
Advertise Them in the
POST-DISPATCH.

THE POST-DISPATCH-PAGES 9-12.

The Post-Dispatch
Will Be Read by Busy
Thousands and Your Want Filled
Ere

BY HIS BROTHER.

A Notorious West Virginia Desperado Meets His Fate.

CAPT. HATFIELD SHOT DEAD IN HIS MOUNTAIN HOME.

Another Tragedy Added to the Long List Which Marks the History of the Hatfield-McCoy Vendetta—Origin of the Feud Which Raged for Years on the Mountain Border of Two States.

CINCINNATI, O., April 6.—A telegram from Louis, Ky., states that the notorious Capt. Hatfield met death at the hands of one of his brothers at his mountain home a few days ago. The story is that one day last week one of the Hatfield brothers, accompanied by a friend named Bayson, called upon Capt. Hatfield at his house for the purpose of enjoying a social evening with a game of poker and a jug of moonshine. Through the early part of the evening all went well, and that night when the two men were about to part with honor, the good luck of their host led his brother to accuse him of fraud. Pistols were drawn and shots freely exchanged. Capt. Hatfield fell, shot twice through the heart. The visitors escaped unharmed. So great is the terror which the Hatfields have created among their associates that it is impossible to ascertain with certainty the name of the Hatfield who killed the Captain.

The feud recalled by the death of Capt. Hatfield began in 1863. The Hatfield family resided in Logan County, W. Va., and the McCloys in Boone County, Ky., across the border. The former were Southern sympathizers while the McCloys were Union people. Capt. Vance, a Hatfield, made a raid in 1863. At that time the two families had been friendly and had intermarried. Capt. Vance and his band passed along the Sandy River, where the people had already suffered from guerrilla warfare. On that raid Vance met Hiram McCoy. They had been warm friends, but as McCoy was a Union man, Vance shot him. It was a cold-blooded murder, although the pretext was a military one. The two bands roused and declared war against the Hatfields.

A MORNING'S WORK.

Some time after the murder three men, Nichols, Arstosh and Lockhart, relatives of the McCloys, descended their company, which belonged to the same section, in which Capt. Vance held command. The Colonel ordered Vance to hunt up the fugitives and bring them in. They were captured, but for some reason were not shot, but allowed to go free. The three desperados then determined to waylay Vance and his band in one of his fields, expecting to shoot him while he was ploughing. The first day they lay in ambush, Vance, having received information from some source of their intention, did not go to the field. The next morning Mrs. Vance went out, ostensibly to gather wild onions, but in search of the whereabouts of her husband's enemies. She caught a glimpse of them in a fence corner behind some bushes, and immediately went to the house. Her husband had armed himself and slipped out the back door, the meanwhile holding the attention of the bushwhackers. When he came to the house, Vance got in the rear of the trio and opened fire from behind a tree. Arstosh was killed, Lockhart was wounded and Nichols escaped with a slight wound.

THREE FOR ONE.

Following the close of the war several more raids were conducted on both sides. Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose. The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

The Hatfields pressed the prosecution, but the jury could not agree.

John McCoy, son of Captain Hatfield, son of Capt. Ansor Hatfield, stole one of Randall McCoy's daughters. He had been making love to her at the time of his stealth and fury and when she told him of his conduct he sent her back home. Then the McCloys arrested the offender and carried him off into Kentucky, where the Hatfields mustered a squad and released him.

Then came another murder. It occurred at an election held in Pike County. It was an illegal election, conducted on both sides.

Nothing was done by the authority to stop the atrocities. The feuds went on in a fitful way until about fifteen years ago two of Hiram McCoy's sons, John and Jim, and a son of killed Wm. Statton, a brother-in-law of Ellis Hatfield. It was alleged that the McCloys had been responsible for the killing of the two boys, and a quarrel arose.

THE POST-DISPATCH

BOSTON OFFICE

The following LOCATIONS BRANCH OFFICES have been established, where WANT ADVERTISEMENTS and SUBSCRIPTIONS will be received and where the PAPER is kept for sale:

CENTRAL.

CLARK ST.—216—Chas. P. Ochner.
FRANKLIN AV.—1600—G. Klapstein.
JEFFERSON AV.—308—H. A. Shultz.
LUCAS ST.—1700—W. S. Fleming.
OLIVE ST.—1400—R. Biley.
WASHINGTON AV.—1528—Stuart's Pharmacy.
WASHINGTON AV.—2388—T. S. Glavin.

NORTHWEST.

BENTON ST.—1501—Koch & Co.
BENTON ST.—2572—A. H. Vordick.
BUDDLE ST.—1600—A. Friedberg & Co.
BROADWAY—1751 N.—B. J. Ludwig.
BROADWAY—2001 N.—O. D'Amour.
BROADWAY AND ANGELICA—W. J. Kohlman.
BROADWAY AND BROADWAY—308 N.—W. G. E. Brueckner.
BROOKLYN—1100—V. J. Mueller.
CARRE ST.—1228—Lion Drug Store.
CARE ST.—2201—Cravat's Pharmacy.
CASS AV.—1000—Case Avenue Pharmacy.
CASE AV.—234—H. W. Strassman.
DODIER ST.—2248—F. B. Vogt.
EASTON AV.—1161—J. C. L. Clark & Co.
EASTON AV.—308—G. P. Mutual.
EAST GRAND AV.—1928—H. W. Wurmb.
ELEVENTH ST.—3701 N.—T. H. Warbur.
ELEVENTH ST.—4201 N.—H. W. Bachelder.
GARRISON AND CASS—Gill Bros.
GAMBLE ST.—2000 N.—F. S. Johnson.
GRAND AV.—1026 N.—W. D. Tamm.
GRAND AV.—3631 N.—A. J. Hoeyen.
GRAND AV.—4048 N.—Wm. Cramer.
HOSSUTH AV.—3903—L. W. O. Henke.
MINTH ST.—2622 N.—O. Claus.
ST. LOUIS AV., cor. GLASGOW AV.—Carly's Drug Store.
ST. LOUIS AV.—1545—Gustavus Koch.
TAYLOR AV.—1827—G. H. Wagner.

WEST END.

BOYLE AND OLD MANCHESTER—T. J. Tiss.
CARABBE PLATE GLASS CO.—Artists' Store.
CHAMBERS ST.—2301—F. H. Swift.
COMPTON AV.—200 S.—J. F. Cummings.
DELMAR AND TAYLOR AVS.—E. M. Pirner.
FINNEY AV.—3887—P. E. Fluet.
FINNEY AND SARAH STS.—Gatewood & Haugen.
LACLEDE AND CABANNE AVS.—Rich's Pharmacy.
LINDELL AV.—3575—D. A. C. May.
LUCKY ST.—2846—Charles C. May.
MARTIN ST.—2846—St. Louis Pharmacy.
MORGAN ST.—2746—B. J. Otto.
OLIVE ST.—2500—J. L. Royston.
OLIVE ST.—3201—Louis Schuck.
OLIVE ST.—3342—E. H. Newell.
OLIVE ST.—3615—W. H. Grant.
OLIVE ST.—4101—E. N. Harris.
PAGE AV.—3750—H. C. Bremer.
WASHINGTON AV.—2800—J. Weimer.
WASHINGTON AV.—3901—J. E. Hilly.

SOUTHWEST.

ALBERT J. Finch.
ARSENAL ST.—1118—H. Blomeyer.
BROADWAY AND LAFAYETTE—O. F. Heitmeier.
BROADWAY—2613 S.—E. S. Goisler.
BROADWAY—3624 S.—H. W. Clinton.
BROADWAY—3907 S.—Henry F. Henn.

CHOUTEAU AV.—700—Henry Braun.
CHOUTEAU AV.—1500—T. F. Hagenow.
CHOUTEAU AV.—1801—H. F. A. Spilker.
CHOUTEAU AV.—2200—H. F. Helwig.
CHOUTEAU AV.—2738—Friedwald's Pharmacy.
FOURTH ST.—1128 S.—Jacob Fried.
GRAND AV.—2822—Compston Hill Pharmacy.
GRAYSON ST.—2711—B. C. Niemann.
GRAVOS ST.—2948—J. Bost.
HICKORY ST.—800—E. A. Sennewald & Co.
HICKORY ST.—1100—Lohrmann & Mynder.
JEFFERSON AV. and MIAMI ST.—Fred J. Meyer.
JEFFERSON AND ANGELICA AVS.—H. L. Blomeyer.
JEFFERSON AV.—3408 S.—Theodore Boddy.
LAFAYETTE AV.—2601—Paul M. Nake.
LAFAYETTE AV.—1800—Philip Kaut.
LAFAYETTE AV.—2822—Compston Hill Pharmacy.
MENARD—1423—Weinberg.
MINARD AND BARTON STS.—C. A. Bendl.
PARK AV.—1937—G. H. Andrews.
PARK AV.—2000—Theodore Boddy.
SALINA ST.—2000—H. A. Gaertner.
ST. ANGE AV.—1400—C. H. Zahn.
SIDNEY ST.—1866—CARONDELET.

LABOR-SAVING DUMP WAGON.

For sand, dirt, stone, macadam, coal, lime, and light materials. Will haul 1000 lbs. per load. Call and preserves the wagon and saves your team. Haier Bros., southwest corner 12th and Locust st.

WANTED—Men and teams at the loading of lumber, etc. at McGehee, Jefferson and St. Louis avs.

WANTED—4 teams at once. Matt Ryan, 3601 Shenandoah st.

WANTED—Barbers Union, No. 1, will hold a meeting in Central Turner Hall, April 11, 9:30 a.m. All insurance barbers are cordially invited to attend these meetings and all who will have their names on the charter. Come one, come all.

R. B. WILLIAMS, Secretary.

LABORERS.

WANTED—4 teams on Matt Ryan, 3601 Shenandoah st.

WANTED—In the morning, 25 men and teams on abanone and lindell st. steady work. James Carroll.

WANTED—Men and teams at the loading of lumber, etc. at McGehee, Jefferson and St. Louis avs.

WANTED—In the morning, 25 men and teams on Pinet st., one-half block west of Taylor av. steady work. James Carroll.

WANTED—In the morning, 25 men and teams on Pinet st., one-half block west of Taylor av. steady work. James Carroll.

LODGE NOTICES.

CASTLE HALL OF CHIVALRY LODGE, No. 70, R. of 4, 403 Locust st.—Meeting Thursday evening, April 7. Work in the hall, work in the laundry degree, and the members, who are fraternal invited.

H. M. LOWDER, N. G. J. A. TOMIAGEN, Sec'y.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

Want Advertisements under the head of For Rent, Boarding and Rooms Wanted in the

SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH

or in the THURSDAY POST-DISPATCH. An additional insertion given without charge in the

THURSDAY POST-DISPATCH.

Book-keepers.

WANTED—Position by younger man, experienced as book-keeper and stenographer, willing to furnish references furnished. Box 452, Jefferson City, Mo.

WANTED—Competent dining-room man at once. 2001 Pine st.

Coachmen.

WANTED—Experienced colored coachmen; city references. Apply 1737 S. Grand av., or northeast corner 16th and Walnut st.

Miscellaneous.

WANTED—Situation as collector by married young man, sober and good recommends. Add. N 56, this office.

WANTED—Situation by a young man who has family to support in some wholesale business; fraternal order. Add. C 72, this office.

WANTED—Young man in grocery can speak German and English; willing to work; can give reference. Add. B 72, this office.

WANTED—Wholesale or retail druggist; no experience; no object. Address K 71, this office.

WANTED—Employment in dry goods or grocery trade; no object; by young man with 5 years experience; good commercial refs.; salary no consideration. Address S 68, this office.

WANTED—Wholesale or retail druggist; no experience; no object. Address S 68, this office.

WANTED—Middle-aged man with a situation as collector or clerk in real estate office; has been collecting in St. Louis for years, and is also familiar with the business; good references; perfectly temperate. Address A 71, this office.

The Trades.

WANTED—Situation as watchmaker; one year experience. Add. F. Weiss, 1105 N. High st.

WANTED—Young man wishes employment with carpenter to learn the trade. Address B 71, this office.

WANTED—Situation by an experienced architectural draughtsman; steady employment preferred. Add. S 70, this office.

Miscellaneous.

WANTED—Situation as sober middle aged man. Address C 72, this office.

WANTED—Situation by reliable middle-aged German woman to horse and work about place. E. 1410 S. 7th st.

WANTED—Situation by experienced gardener to tend flowers; vegetable garden private place preferred. Add. C 69, this office.

WANTED—By young man, place to work for apprentices; 2 months and have half time off; offices work pref. Address C 69, this office.

WANTED—Will give full recommendation to any watchman or any position of trust; can furnish references. Address Y 62, this office.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

Want Advertisements under the head of For Rent, Boarding and Rooms Wanted in the

SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH

guaranteed to produce satisfactory results, or an additional insertion will be given without charge in

THURSDAY POST-DISPATCH.

Book-keepers.

WANTED—Situation as manager of a boarding school, open day and night. Corlett Broadway and Market st. Board for students.

Wanted Clerks and Salesmen.

WANTED—A drug clerk. 3572 Lindell av.

WANTED—Two good seamstresses at 302 S. 28th.

WANTED—Two good sewers on dresses. 3226 Olive st.

WANTED—Handsome seers on jeans pants. 3031 S. 28th.

WANTED—Dressmakers and seamstresses.

WANTED—Situation as maid or chaperone by a widow. 1500 Locust st.

WANTED—A position as stenographer, in office preferred; has the best of experience and references. Address C 69, this office.

WANTED—A first-class advertising solicitor, for permanent position good pay. Address A 68, this office.

WANTED—A maid for a bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—A maid for a bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or widow.

WANTED—Situation by a lady from Hutchinson, Kan., as housekeeper for bachelor or

THE STRICKER CASE.

Secretary Hawley of the Cleveland Club Explains Matters.

THE SECOND-BASEMAN CANNOT COMPEL ST. LOUIS TO PAY HIS TERMS.

The Technical Points in the Case—Performances of the Horses Who Are to Compete in the Big Handicaps—Racing, Base Ball and Sporting News of All Kinds.

Secretary Davis Hawley of the Cleveland Club says that there is a wrong impression out about the agreement entered into at Indianapolis, and that this wrong impression does Chris Von der Ahe an injury. Mr. Hawley is a personal friend of Second Baseman Stricker, but he says that there was no agreement at Indianapolis by which Von der Ahe is forced to pay Stricker the $10,000 salary Club signed for with the Boston Club.

"The agreement entered into at Indianapolis was provided," said Mr. Hawley, "that players get the same salary for which they signed with other clubs, when they were especially asked for, and the club so asking agreed to give such players the salary they had signed for. For instance, Pittsburgh asked for Farrell and got him, Boston asked for Duffy and that player was immediately awarded to Boston. These clubs agreed to pay the players just what the Boston Club asked for, and had been apportioned the others were put in a pool and equally distributed among the clubs. Regarding these players' salary there was no agreement. Stricker was among them and according to the terms of the agreement Von der Ahe is not forced to pay him more than he chooses."

THE CLEVELAND TEAM.

Cleveland will have one of the finest fielding aggregations on the diamond the coming season, but the club is weak in two points, batting and their pitching department.

Outside of two or three men the club has no strong reliable batter, and Young is the only pitcher on the club's pay-roll who could be depended upon last season for first-class work.

Davis, it was secured from Waukegan, probably a good buy. He was very successful in the few games he pitched against the big clubs in the Association toward the close of last season. Davis has come to St. Louis to improve his game. He has kept up this pace should he do so. Cleveland will never regret signing him. Leon Vau, the old Cincinnati pitcher, at the time of his retirement, did not depend upon to do so regularly. George Reitter, who was secured by the Browns towards the close of last season from Minneapolis and who made a regular exponent and Cuppy, Williams and Shearon, all experiments, are under contract as pitchers. Trout, who has been with the club, the club is very weak, so far as pitchers are concerned. The catching department, on the contrary, is very strong; Charley Zimmer, one of the best catchers in the country, will be the club's principal catcher. Jack O'Connor, a product of this city, who, however, has developed the best catching in the city, who also made a reputation with Columbus, will be Zimmer's principal assistant. O'Connor, besides being an excellent catcher, is a good batsman, can handle the outfield, and consequently his strong work with the stick can be utilized in every game. Jackie Doyle, an other good batsman, is under contract with the club. First base will be guarded by Jake Virtue, who can field the position well as any man in the city. Virtue is a strong considerate a weak batter, but last season made a fair record with the stick. "Fatty" Childs will continue as second base. "Cub" Stricker and Paul Radics were exchanged to Boston for this player last spring, and although "Fatty" has put up a fair game, Stricker's work has been by far the better, and that the manager has undoubtedly regretted making the trade. Childs led the club in hitting last season. E. J. McKeon, who is a fine short stop, is a great find, and is an excellent fielder. He is also a strong batter and a valuable man. Captain and manager Paddy Tracy, who will cover center field, is a st. Louis boy. He is one of the most brilliant players in his position on the diamond. Tracy is a good fielder, and altogether can hold his own with any third baseman playing ball to day. The outfit is one of the strongest in the League, especially in the field, and the manager is concerned. The former is recognized as one of the star outfields of the country and is a great base runner. He will be found in left field. Virtue, who will guard first field, is a strong outfielder, a beautiful thrower, an excellent hitter and base runner and covers the entire field. Virtue has covered third base last season while Tebeau was injured and made a most excellent record. While the fact is taken into consideration that Davis has only been playing in the League two seasons, one of which was when that body was in its infancy, and that during his work last season was remarkable. Jesse Burkett, who hails from Wheeling, W. Va., the home of Glasscock, Curt Welch, Buckley and others, is well known and may look after right field. Burkett is a youngster whom Capt. Tebeau thinks will develop into a first-class man. He made a fair record with the club last season.

TO-MORROW'S GAME.

The Browns play the John C. Meyers' team at Sportsman's Park to-morrow afternoon, the same being called at 3:15 o'clock. McDonald, the one-armed pitcher who is claimed to be a phenomenon, will officiate for the Mayers Club.

BASEBALL Gossip.

Haddock and Lovett still hold out for their demands from the Brooklyn Club.

Season tickets admitting to grounds and grand stand can be had for $85.50 in New York.

"Jocko" Fields will probably be a fixture on the New York trolley. It is wonderful how some players can brace up when they have to.

The Eastern Association was organized yesterday. Clegg will play at Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Albany, Elmira, Philadelphia, Providence, New Haven, Troy and Birmingham.

Buffalo has not reported at Baltimore yet. His place is taken by the team that Arthur Irwin will be secured to handle the "Orioles" and Bill Brown will replace Lew Whistler on first base.

Young and others have set the Boston cranks wild. In a game last Friday he scored three runs and pounded out two hits. In McCarty, Duffy and Storey, Boston has the best outside chance.

Fred Pfeffer took control of the Louisville Club to-day. Tom Brown resigned the captaincy in Fred's favor. Shortstop Jennings is suffering from an ailment on his foot, and it may be out for several weeks, which will weaken the club considerably.

The change of management took place yesterday. At New Haven—Boston, 5. Yale University, 4. Philadelphia, 3. Indianapolis, 1. Princeton, 1. Washington, 1. Washington, 1. University of Vermont, 0. At New York—New York, 1. Cornell, 6. Charlton, 5.

The Washington Club, according to a dispatch from the capital city, is desirous of seeing "Cub" Stricker. "Cub" is in Washington at present. If President Von der Ahe can be induced to release him, he will be placed on third base. Hardie Richardson will then return to his old position in left field.

THE TURF.

The Brooklyn Handicap which will be run over the Gravesend course during the coming spring meeting of the Brooklyn Jockey Club is with the possible exception of the suburban Handicap the most noted race for all aged horses run in America. Interest over the result of this event extends not only throughout the United States, but in turf circles throughout the world. A full list of contestants, together with the weights to be carried, will be published in the paper when the records were made, the weights then carried and the condition of the track are given below. In cases where the horses have made no records at the distance their records at the next longest distances are given if possible, and if they have no records at such longer distances their records are given at the next shorter distances.

Y. fast; Fa.; fair; G.; good; H.; heavy; m.; miles; T.; furlong.

NAME AND AGE.

Pounds.

Best Record.

Distance.

Wt. in Pounds.

Pounds.

Track.

Frenzi, Florida, Lizzie Lanes, Miss Woodford, Explosion, Park College and Jessie June, while among the stallions of prominence are Salvator, imp. Sir Modred, imp. Dernan, imp. Durant, Torsa, imp. Maxton, and imp. Kyrie Daily.

Judge Morrow, 5.

112 208 108 Fa.

Bart, 5.

112 206 115 Fa.

Unglioni, 6.

120 205 145 Fa.

Eos, 6.

112 205 145 Fa.

Vassalata, 8.

112 207 145 Fa.

Tenny, 8.

122 207 145 Fa.

Judge Morrow, 5.

112 206 115 Fa.

Hascaland, 7.

108 209 145 Fa.

Porthcarter, 4.

112 209 145 Fa.

Reporter, 6.

112 209 145 Fa.

John, 5.

110 209 145 Fa.

Castaway, II, 6.

108 210 145 Fa.

Strathmash, 4.

114 210 145 Fa.

Allan Bone, 4.

100 211 145 Fa.

Kingmaker, 5.

112 211 145 Fa.

Beamer, 4.

100 212 145 Fa.

McPicker, 4.

112 224 150 Fa.

Montana, 4.

112 225 150 Fa.

Heckon, 4.

112 240 150 Fa.

San Juan, 4.

112 241 150 Fa.

Clarendon, 5.

114 244 150 Fa.

Tex, 5.

112 254 150 Fa.

India Rubber, 4.

100 157 Fa.

Ambulance, 4.

112 156 150 Fa.

Cela, 4.

107 149 Fa.

Vortex, 4.

100 151 Fa.

L. Intrigue, 4.

112 140 150 Fa.

George, W. W.

100 143 Fa.

Peter, 4.

100 145 Fa.

His Highness, 3.

110 114 Fa.

Fairview, 4.

100 118 Fa.

Zampot, 3.

100 111 Fa.

Own Robert, 5.

100 106 Fa.

WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTION,

And will re-insert, WITHOUT ADDITIONAL CHARGE, if after three days the want is not filled.

Having the Largest Circulation in St. Louis and Suburbs,

WE HAVE THE BEST MEDIUM.

WITH

200,000 READERS,

We feel safe when we say as above,

We Guarantee Success.

THOUSANDS

HAVE FOUND THE VIRTUE OF A

WANT ADVERTISEMENT

IN THE

SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTION,

And will re-insert, WITHOUT ADDITIONAL CHARGE, if after three days the want is not filled.

Having the Largest Circulation in St. Louis and Suburbs,

WE HAVE THE BEST MEDIUM.

WITH

200,000 READERS,

We feel safe when we say as above,

We Guarantee Success.

WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTION,

And will re-insert, WITHOUT ADDITIONAL CHARGE, if after three days the want is not filled.

Having the Largest Circulation in St. Louis and Suburbs,

WE HAVE THE BEST MEDIUM.

WITH

200,000 READERS,

We feel safe when we say as above,

We Guarantee Success.

WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTION,

And will re-insert, WITHOUT ADDITIONAL CHARGE, if after three days the want is not filled.

Having the Largest Circulation in St. Louis and Suburbs,

WE HAVE THE BEST MEDIUM.

WITH

200,000 READERS,

We feel safe when we say as above,

We Guarantee Success.

WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTION,

And will re-insert, WITHOUT ADDITIONAL CHARGE, if after three days the want is not filled.

Having the Largest Circulation in St. Louis and Suburbs,

WE HAVE THE BEST MEDIUM.

WITH

200,000 READERS,

We feel safe when we say as above,

We Guarantee Success.

WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTION,

And will re-insert, WITHOUT ADDITIONAL CH